is the unanimous opinion of the mem ters of the North Carolina Press Associstion, who are here, two hundred strong, attending the midwinter session of the association, that they are having the time of their lives. They are attendtime for a great deal of fun. They will all there is to see about the home of Uncle Sam before they go back, and they will have the best possible time in they will have the best possible time in doing it.

There was a business session of the convention this morning and then the members were hustled away to go over to Mount Vernon and Arlington. It was I o'clock before the start thither was made, and it was nearly dark when they reached the National on their return. The large number of wives and daughters who accompany the men of the press adds greatly to the pleasure the scribes are having.

It is gravely announced that the business sessions of the association are to be held in the forenoons and that the afternoons and evenings of the three days are to be devoted to pleasure.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

The convention was called to order at the National Hotel this morning at 9 o'clock by President H. B. Varner. The opening prayer was made by Rev. Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College. Commissioner Macfarland, of the District of Criumbia, was then introduced and made a felicitous address of welcome. He said that the people of Washington counted on the press of North Carolina to aid that the people of Washington counted on the press of North Carolina to aid that the people of Washington counted on the press of North Carolina to aid that the people of Washington counted on the press of North Carolina to aid that the press of North Carolina had never given a greater man to the world who had grown up olsewhere, if Andrew Jackson to excepted.

H. A. London, editor of the Pittsboro Record, replied in suitable terms. He said there was not the slightest doubt that the members of the association would have a good time here. He said they were all more or less familiar with the history which had been made at the national capital, and that they wanted to see some of it made. He was enthus slastic in his allusions to the beauties of the door and found Miss Williams upon the press of the door and found Miss Williams upon the press of the door and found Miss Williams upon the press of the door and found Miss Williams upon the press of the door and found Miss Williams upon the press of the pression of the press of the door and found Miss Williams upon the pression of the pre President Varner then read his annual address, which discussed many of the vexations which beset the publisher. The feature of the paper was a recomthe vexations which beset the publisher. The feature of the paper was a recommendation that a committee be appointed to recommend that a minimum rate be fixed for advertising. He proposed that a certain rate be fixed for circulation of one thousand, a higher rate for the next five hundred, and so on. He suggested that in case of the adoption of his suggestion, all editors who did not conform to the scale should be excluded from the association. He also suggested that the appual dues be raised to ten dollars. In order that a competent man might be employed to look after the foreign advertising.

mr. H. E. C. Bryant, of Charlotte, made ar address on "Subscriptions." which was latened to with close attention. It contained many valuable suggestions.

The committee appointed to examine the president's address reported heartily endorsing the agagestion therein contained that a minimum rate be tixed for advertising and recommended that a committee of three-be appointed to fix the track. It was also recommended that a nual dues in order to employ a man to look after the foreign advertising. DEAD AGAINST GOOD NEWS JORDAN BILL

Colonel Bob Lee Expresses Himself Against the Breaking of the Baylor Survey.

A NEW REPUBLICAN PAPER

It is Expected to Appear About Middle of January in Lynchburg or Roanoke.

Colonal R. E. Lee, Jr., member of the House of Delegates from Fairfax county, was here a few hours to-day looking after important business. He returned to Richmond this afternoon.
"I am dead against the bill to break the Baylor survey," he said with emphasis. "I am hopeful of seeing it defeated.
It is not a law yat by a great deal."
I have heard a great deal of opposition to the bill expressed by Virginins here in the course of the past few days. One gentleman, who, would not allow his name to be used in this coincection, said to me yesterdry that, he believed that if the Jordan bill became a law them were seven counties in the eastern section of Virginia that would return Republican majorities at the next election, He added that between the failure of the regissterd voters to pay their capitation tax, the refusal of many white

WANTS NEW BUILDING.

Representative Stemp, of the Ninth Virginia District, said to-day that he was very hopeful of being able to secure the appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars, which he has asked for to defray the cost of a public building to be erected at Big Stone Gap. He has had a talk with Speaker Cannon on the subject, and as a result of the conversation he was much encouraged. It is generally understood that Mr. Cannon is opposed to appropriations for public buildings.

Senator Martin went to Charlottesville to-day to attend the marriage of Mr. John White, of that place, an our friend. The senator will go over to his home and remain a day or two, looking after matters on the farm.

Senator Daniel, who has been in Lynchburg some days attending to law matters, will return bere Friday.

Representative Glass is back in the city, after an absence of some days at his home in Lynchburg. Mr. Glass has several bills, which he will try to set through at the regular session.

Representative Swanson also has many measures, which he will try to set through at the regular session. The bills have not yet been introduced.

Mrs. Siemp is visiting her husband, who lives at the Ebbilt House. They went to the races this afternoon, and Representative Slemp said, his better half enjoyed the sport more than he did. But there are few men from the Southwest who do not love the horse, so he probably had as much fun as his wife.

The board will meet on the 16th instant and decide the matter. There are more Rapublicians in Roanoke than in Lynchburg, said Col. Sleinp, in discussing the matter to-day. UNCLE JOE'S JOKE.

The close resemblance which Representative Maynard bears to Representative Wachter, of Maryland was the cause of an amusing incident in the House yestorday. When the roll was called on the motion to adjourn. Mr. Maynard was on the Republican side talking to Representative Lacy. The Democrats voted to remain in session and go to work, but the tative Easy. The Democrats voted to remain in session and go to work, but the Republicans voted solidly to adjourn over until Friday. After the first call of the roll several members, who had been in the cloak rooms, came in and asked to have their names recorded for or against the motion. Mr. Maynard, as the chair was recognizing these late voters, shouled, "libre's another one."

"One more in the affirmative," called Speaker Cannon to the clerk.

"No, in the negative," called Mr. Maynard.

"The gentleman has the voice of Jacob, but the hand of Esau," remarked the Speaker, and laughter and applause from both sides of the House. To casual acquaintances there is the closest re-

And thus it is with the lives of people. A good deed done may soon be forgotten, but the influence which radiates from that one deed may reach unto the very ends of the earth. An instance illustrative of this has recently occurred. Within a year ago a Mrs. Stewart, of Norfolk, a very prominent lady of that city, suffered an accident which seriously damaged her eyesight, causing most indamaged her eyesight, causing most in-tense pains' and neuralgic trouble, and her physicians anticipated nervous disheadaches and other troubles incident upon the injury to her eyes, that Charles Lincoln Smith, the New York special-ist, was visiting Norfolk, professionally, last spring. THE FEELING IS INTENSE

Old Animosities Are Revived by Discussion of Reopening Dreyfus Case.

(By Associated Press.) PARIS. Dec. 2.—Only incidental men-tion was made of the Dreytus case at the weekly sitting of the Revision Commission to-day, when before the end of the proceedings General Mercler, the sentor member, excused himself on the ground that he had to examine the Dreyfus documents transmitted by the minister of General Mercler added that he would make his report as soon as possible, but that he did not believe he could do so before the lapse of ien days.

A meeting of prominent Nationalists to-day demonstrated that they are bitterly antagonistic to the action taken by the government. Former War Minister Ca-

The bitter tone of the Nationalists is an indication of how the actual taking up of the case to-day has revived all the old animosities and bitterness of the last ten years. Intense feeling is shown throughout governmental, publical and army direles.

Admiral Taylor Deals With Them at Length in His Annual Report.

GENERAL STAFF FOR NAVY

This One of His Recommendations, as Well as Appointment of Two Vice-Admirals.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The annual report of Admiral H. C. Taylor, chiat of the Bureau of Navigation, made public to-day, recommends the creation of a general staff in the navy, the appointment of two vice-admirals, one for the Aslatic station and one for the North Atlantic station, a material increase in the number of officers, and the addition of a number of ships to the navy, it says the Aslatic station needs six cruisers of an improved Olympia type and four cruisers of the Scout cruiser type, of which latter two can now be provided. It is also urged that two small gunboats of large launches be provided immediately for service on the Chinese rivers for the protection of American Interests where the present gunboats cannot operate, owing to their size.

Admiral Taylor expressed the opinion that a large number of cruisers will be very necessary during the next few years. Admiral Taylor calls attention to the time spent by vessels of the North Atlantic fleet at navy yards for repairs, saying the battleship Alabama spent 132 days at the New York navy yard, the Kearsarge 104 days and the Indiana 102, which, he says, is too long, He recommends that versels of this fleet visit the navy yards, for repairs only once a year, Admiral Taylor treats at great length the subject of descritons, showing that for the year 1603 the percentage was 125. general staff in the navy, the appoint

THE NEGROES STILL CARRY TELEGRAMS

Several of Them Fared Badly Yesterday at the Hands of Boys.

The strike of the twenty-five or thirty messenger boys in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company is still on with no signs of yielding. The boys are still out, and very much in evidence on the streets. Yesterday several cases of violence to the negro men who are employed by the company to fill the strikers places were reported. The police streets a messenger by suspected in arrested a messenger boy suspected o striking one of the colored messenger with a rock, but he could not be identi with a rock, but he could not be identihed as the boy who threw the missile and was discharged. A colored messenger, named James Randolph, was set upon by a gang of white hoys yesterday, and in the melee sustained a stay wound in the shoulder. The wound is about an inch long, and while severe is not at all serios. The identity of the assailant who did the stabbing was not established.

Another colored messenger was sur-

established.

Another colored messenger was surrounded by a gang of small hove near the corner of Governor and Franklin yesterday afternoon and assailed with such a shower of bricks and stones that he could not get to his wheel. The negro was driven off, and one of the assailants jumped into his prostrate wheel and smashed the steel spokes, brilly disabling the bike. The boys escaped detection.

smashed the steel spokes, brilly disabiling the bike. The boys escaped detection. The company reported last night that it was carrying on its deliveries about as usual, having twenty-four colored messengers on duty. Asked as to whitter there had been any perceptible, loss or diminution of business since the strike a representative of the company said that it was too early yet to tell. He stated that the striking white boys had gotten new uniforms about a month ago, but that these would be serviceable by dotaching the buttons and stripes. The representative of the company expressed the opinion that it was proper that negro men should carry messages, for the reason that the iffe of a messenger boy is very demoralizing, their work taking them into the slums and to the immoral spots of the oliv at all hours of the day and right. However moral a boy might be in the start, his associations and work had a tendency to demoralize him. in gail. However, moral a boy might be in the start, his associations and work had a tendency, to demoralize him.

The company shows no signs of yielding and the boys assert that they will not return at the new rates. A few days will tell whether the innovation will te tolerated here. Public sentiment is largely with the boys, and especially because the out was announced in mawinter, on the eve of Christmas and Just after the boys had gotten new uniforms, which they had to pay for.

The colored messengers, generally young negro men, had to look carefully yesterday to avoid missiles and attacks from sympathizers of the boys. The 'police are endeavoring to maintain the laws and to prevent violence, but the boys are too sharp to be caught in violence.

The outpuring of his followers was not one to uring cheer to the heart of the general overseer of Zion. The tabernacie soits are taken at the special meetings called by Dowle. To-night the hall was not over half filled and the gathering was not as enthusiastic as might be desired by a negro in St. Mary's Park this afternoon. He caught her by the throat and threw her to the ground and tried to tear her purse from her wrist. Two boys heard her screames and chased the negro to Beekman Avenue and thence to One Hundred and Forty-first Etreet. In the run through the open streets they were joined by several hundred men and two policemen from the Alenander Avenue Station. After an exciting chase the negro was captured.

Magistrate Baker held the man, who was positively identified by Mrs. McCullough, in $2,000 bond for trial. He said he was John Johnson, of Richmond, Va., and declared he was innocent of the darge. The two boys who had followed him, however, stated that he was the man they saw robbing Mrs. McCullough.
